A LITTLE BIT OF TURKEY

National Sovereignty and Children's Day
23 April. (Turkish: Ulusal Egemenlik ve Çocuk Bayramı) is one of the public holidays in Turkey. This national day, April 23rd Children's Day, in Turkey Republic is a unique event. The founder of the Turkish Republic, Mustafa Kemal Atatürk, presented April 23rd to all the world's children to emphasize that they are successor of the future. During the War of Independence, Grand National Assembly met in Ankara and laid down the foundations of a new, independent, secular and modern republic from the ashes of the Ottoman Empire. Following the defeat of the Allied invasion forces on September 9th, 1922 and the signing of the Treaty of Lausanne on July 24th, 1923, Atatürk started his task of establishing the institutions of the new state. Over the next eight years, Atatürk and his followers adopted sweeping reforms to create a modern Turkey, divorced from her Ottoman past. In unprecedented moves, he dedicated the sovereignty day to the children and entrusted in the hands of the youth the protection of this sovereignty and independence.

Every year, the children in Turkey celebrate this “Sovereignty and Children's Day” as a national holiday. Over the last two decades, the Turkey Republic has been working hard to internationalize this important day. Their efforts resulted in large number of world states’ sending groups of children to Turkey to participate in the above stated festivities. This results in a truly international Assembly, where children pledge their commitment to international peace and brotherhood.

The importance of April 23 as a special day of children has been recognized by the international community. UNICEF decided to recognize this important day as the International Children's Day.

 Initial Assignment Briefing: 15 April at 1000

Come find out what actions/documents are required in order for your Assignment Team to generate PCS orders. Must bring a copy of Assignment Rfp and PPC Instruction, if applicable. 50 seats are available and you must RSVP through your CSS.

Do You Know the Rules for Reenlist/Extending?

Do you know the rules for reenlistment or extending? An Airman must have 12-months retainability after DEROS to be considered for an assignment. If an Airman does not have or obtain the required retainability by the required date, their DEROS will be involuntarily extended to match their date of separation and will be projected for separation. If you have questions, contact your Unit CSS or the MPF, if CSS is not available.

Did You Know Fitness Assessment Can Affect Promotion?

An Airman serving in a grade of SRA through SMSgt becomes ineligible for promotion during a particular cycle (includes testing and/or consideration if already tested, cancellation of promotion sequence number if previously selected) when he or she is under fail or non-current fitness assessment (FA) condition as of the promotion eligibility cutoff date (PECD). For example, SSgt X’s FA is due 31 Dec, member is overdue and did not test by 31 Jan (PECD) for SSgt X’s next promotion. SSgt X takes FA in December, fails and does not have a passing FA by 31 Jan. The MPF will update the Airman’s promotion eligibility status (PES) code to 3, Fitness Failure/Non-current as of PECD, with an effective date of PECD.

Do You Know If You or Your Dependents Require a Passport?

Are you planning overseas leave travel and don’t know the entry requirements for the country you’re visiting? Look no further than the Foreign Clearance Guide (https://www.tcg.pentagon.mil/tcg.cfm). This has the information you need to know prior to your travel, regardless if your visit is for official business or leisure. Entry requirements for your dependents are also available on the website (i.e. official/no-fee passport, visas, etc.). You may also find additional information at Travel.State.gov website.

Frequently Asked Questions

How early can I submit my documents for PCS orders? You may submit your documents as early as 180-days but no later than 90-days prior to your projected departure date.

How long does it take to receive PCS Orders once I submit my Documents?

Once your documents are received, your assignment counselor has 3 duty days to review and respond to you. If no correction(s) are needed, your assignment counselor has an additional 1 duty day to draft and submit draft orders to the Assignment Office. The AO has 1 duty day to review your draft orders. During the review, the AO may return the orders for corrections or submit to AFPC for authentication. AFPC has 5-8 duty days to authenticate the orders. You’re looking at about 2 weeks of PCS order process.

I’m PCSing overseas with my dependents and they need an official/to fee passport and visa. Can I submit the application to my local MFP for processing? Per DOD regulations, all applicants must be physically available for an in-person interview during the application process. Therefore, your Incirm MFP team cannot accept official/to-fee passport applications for dependents. Your dependents must contact the nearest military installation for assistance and they must have a copy of your PCS orders readily available. The official/to-fee passport application process could take between 4 to 6 weeks. After dependents receive the official/to-fee passport, an additional 4 or more weeks is needed for the visa application process. For additional information, you may refer to the Travel.State.gov website. Contact the local MFP/Customer Service team for additional questions.
